Dear Johnny:

STATINTL

[redacted] just stuck his head in the door to say that you had called regarding several items. Here are my comments respecting each.

1. We'll be happy to see you Thursday, the 28th, or the morning of Friday, the 29th. We are having a Board meeting on the afternoon of the 29th, which has been postponed several times, and it would be rather difficult to change it.

2. We have not received any contract for the proposed work in Washington. The last word we had on this subject came from a mysterious person, who identified himself simply as "Jack," calling from Washington, about two weeks ago. He said we should be receiving the contract any day.

3. Sorry for the delay in getting the reports to you. I was surprised to hear that we had not sent you some directly instead of sending them all via [redacted] It may be some comfort to you in any event to know that they left here on schedule. STATINTL

4. I called [redacted] a couple of weeks ago to get a progress report on their activities so that I could do some planning. (We have not received a contract from them either.) His estimate at that time was that the gang would convene in Washington the early part of February.

On this basis, I have planned to be in Washington the week of the 8th. Do you have any up-to-date information on this matter?

We are looking forward to seeing you next week.

Best regards,

Dick
